Something Better

Danko Jones

You want something better
When it don't feel right
Never seem to stay too long
You're never satisfiedOne day you're gonna wake up
Find you're past your prime
Realize what you should've kept
Is what you left behind, is what you left behindYou're looking over your shoulder
Most days and nights
Everyone seems to have it all
Greener on the other sideYou got a feeling you're entitled
You feel you have the right
When you finally have it all
Will you draw the line?One day you're gonna wake up
One day you're gonna wake upYou want something better
When it don't feel right
Never seem to stay too long
You're never satisfiedOne day you're gonna wake up
And find you're past your prime
Realize what you should've kept
Is what you left behindOne day you're gonna wake up
One day you're gonna wake up
You're gonna wake up
