Tomorrow

Emma Bunton

He's one of a kind and he's all mine
He's there for me, come rain or shine a million times
Then one day suddenly he needed me
Would I be strong enough for two
When he is you
I know how to ease all your sorrow
So come here, rest your head on my pillow
It's alright, we don't need a tomorrow tonight
I know how to open the window
To your soul, close your eyes, you can follow
It's alright, we don't need a tomorrow tonight
She wants him to see all he can be
'Cause all it takes is an open heart and honesty
Then one day suddenly he really believed
That he'd be strong enough for she
When she is me, oh, oh
I know how to ease all your sorrow
So come here, rest your head on my pillow
It's alright, we don't need a tomorrow tonight
I know how to open the window
To your soul, close your eyes, you can follow
It's alright, we don't need a tomorrow tonight
Oh, oh, we fly
'Cause together we're stronger
When we can touch the sky
Don't need tomorrow tonight, tonight
Oh, oh, I know how to ease all your sorrow
So come here, rest your head on my pillow
It's alright, we don't need a tomorrow tonight
I know how to open the window
To your soul, close your eyes, you can follow
It's alright, we don't need a tomorrow tonight
'Cause it's alright, we don't need a tomorrow tonight
Don't need tomorrow tonight, yeah
Don't need tomorrow tonight
Don't need tomorrow tonight
