

Sergio's Here

The Falcon

I went to rehab for being too damn high
With you dumb motherfuckers in the middle of the night.
And when I get back, I'm gonna find you guys
Take us to the L&L and make us drink til one of us dies
Red skies, hot rain, ugly boys bathing in the drain
The moon and skies are falling but Sergio's here
Death has come a-calling but now Sergio's here
Do you have the money, girl, I wanna get high
And goddamnit, Sergio's here!
They do some gamblin on these cocks and balls
And the dealer drives right up to the door when you call
And I been rambling, but hey, maybe I'll stay
Your face seems like a pretty great place to decay
And I'll try to make you laugh
I'll try to make you sweat
And shake and convulse and moan "holy shit"
Holy Shit! Did you get the funny feeling Sergio's here?
I hear all that heavy breathing. Sergio's here
Do you have the money girl, I wanna get high
And goddamnit, Sergio's here. And goddamnit, Sergio's here.
Bathing in the stars. Cool among the graves
Treat it like art, a sweet little mistake
What else has there ever been?
Now baby come near.
And maybe bring your money cause, Sergio's here
