Alexis Jordan

I'm here to give you my love
I'm here to give you my heart this evening
Tell me that you were ready
Tell me you'll take it steady with me
OhSay that it's us that your seeing in your dreams tonight
Say that it's love that you need and your needing mine
Say that It's the height of imagination
That's how the celebration
All we need is a radio you and mena na na na naI came to tell you my past
I'm hoping that you'll want a future after
Tell me that you'll protect me
Oh
Promise you won't regret me
NoSay that it's us that your seeing in your dreams tonight
Say that it's love that you need and your needing mine
Say that It's the height of imagination
That's how the celebration
All we need is a radio you and meAnd if you ever get lost
I'll come and get ya
No matter what the cost
I'll pay it with ya
You don't ever have to wonder
I'll doubt my feeling for ya
Because we're solid as a rock
Of everything you are
And everything your not
Give you all that I've got
And I'm never gonna stop
NoI'm here to give you my love

My heart
My heartSay that it's us that your seeing in your dreams tonight
Say that it's love that you need and your needing mine
Say that It's the height of imagination
That's how the celebration
All we need is a radio you and me
Say that it's us that your seeing in your dreams tonight
Say that it's love that you need and your needing mine
Say that It's the height of imagination

That's how the celebration
All we need is a radio you and me
