

Point of You

Twelve Foot Ninja

The sun,
The moon,
And the start,
They could never be bigger,
Any bigger than you are. It's all your point of view,
Of you,
You,
It all comes back to you,
You,
It all comes back.
When will you see the thing in you,
That you find in me?
It all comes back to you,
When will you see the things in you,
That you find in me?
One day you'll see.
An infinite cosmic dance,
An atomic romance,
A mystery hidden from view,
A universe inside you,
Within your fleeting glance,
A vast and stunning expanse,
Reveals the unspoken truth,
The all-in-all inside you. One day you'll see the sun.
