Another Day

Lethal

Captured in this sequence
I lust for days of promise passing by
Another place, another time
Another ship of fools I am onOh, they go nowhere
Should I feel this way?
Have I been this way before?
Just another dayIn the life of one man
Who watched the hours quickly passing by
I had the world in my hand
But then how could I let it slip away?Oh, God, fade away
Should I feel this way?
Have I been this way before?
Just another dayI waited on the morning
The sun did rise
Another day is lost in time
Now my direction wandersI've lost my way
Oh, God, I need someone
To help me through another day
Is this real? OhTime will never answer for itself
Seems I'm wasting all of mine precious time
These feelings that I have for you
So unreal and they just get in my wayOh, God, in my way
Should I feel this way?
Have I been this way before?
Just another dayI waited on the morning
The sun did rise
Another day is lost in time
Now my direction wandersI've lost my way
Oh God, I need someone
To help me through another day
Is this real?Tried to feed this hunger
Tried to see this light
I can feel no longer
Is there no escape from here?
Is this life but what I have seen?Captured in this sequence
I lust for days of promise passing by
Another place, another time
Another ship of fools I am onOh, they go nowhere
Should I feel this way?

Have I been this way before?
Just another dayI waited on the morning
The sun did rise
Another day is lost in time
Now my direction wandersI've lost my way
Oh, God, I need someone
To help me through another day
Is this real? Oh
