

Your Love Is a Miracle

Average White Band

Your love is a miracle
More than a habit to me, girl
Your love is a miracle, baby
Black magic in the first degreeI get by on your sweetness
Got a taste for that kind of sugar in my tea
But don't you cut off my supply
There's no substitute for this burning desire you've given me, yeahYour love is a miracle, yes, it is Much more than a habit to me
You know, you know your love is a miracle, baby, baby
It's a black magic in the first degreeWhen I come home at night
Just lookin' for something to make me feel alright now
Just to tease me you hold back, you know you shouldn't do that
I'll go crazy and do something you might not likeYour love is a miracle, yes, it is, yeah
I got my supernatural [Incomprehensible] me, yeah
You know your love is a miracle, baby, yeah
[Incomprehensible], yeahLittle bit of witchcraft in youBaby when I'm out of reach
Never really out of touch
You know you keep me hummin' nowSo please promise me, wherever I might be
Your love will keep me coming through, yeah
You know your love is a miracle
You know you're more than a habit to me, yeahYour love is Your love is
Your love isYour love
Your love
Your love
Your love
Your love
Your love
