Making Up

Mimes On Rollercoasters

Look in her eyes; she is smiling.
The wind blows laughter through her hair.
The Sun rises to warm her day.
Itâ€™s light is every-where.

Theyâ€™re making up and mending hearts, with every single move.
Marcel and Mimi together again, a love forever true.

Reflecting on a bad decision,
Marcel has paid his dues.
He won her heart for a second chance.
A heart heâ€™ll never lose.

Theyâ€™re making up and mending hearts, with every single move.
Marcel and Mimi together again, a love forever true.

They start again, live with the wisdom
That natural instinct holds
They live their lives, as they coincide
Their future now unfolds.

Theyâ€™re making up and mending hearts, with every single move.
Marcel and Mimi together again, a love forever true.

Theyâ€™re making up and mending hearts, with everything they do.
Marcel and Mimi together again, a love forever true.
