

In the End

Drake Bell

wake up
its time to get your things together and drive away
vida the future days
will treat you better
thats what they say
another day
come without a say
but its ok
everytime to run
and feel the memories
bringing you down

and in the end
are you stronger
do you no longer
need to recover
where have you been sinces been over
over my shoulder
onto my skin
will you ever return again ooooooooaaa

wake up
the monsters
in your head have left you all to yourself
its alright
the front
a little bit
thank around you
of how it feel
another day
ill tell you
how i feel
whats in your way
in just with saying
the thruth

you dont displayful you ever been
