The Consequence

Urban Species

Calm down, she said
Consider this a warning
A souvenir for the morning
A headache that you can't fixI said I can talk my, my way out of anything
But I am struggling in this emergency
This one's on your side
I said this one's on yourAmbulance, I'm calling you now
Accidents bring the house down
Come on, come on, you don't know me
Come on, come on, you owe me nothingDry your eyes and stick them on ice
Give your chest a rest, it's been cold your whole life
I'll have you know the tables are about to turn
And you're going to get what, what, what you deserveAmbulance, I'm calling you now
Accidents bring the house down
Come on, come on, you don't know me
Come on, come on, you owe me nothingIs this in it my love? Turn it up, turn it up
I want to hear you scream
Oh, is this in it my love? Turn it up, turn it up
I want to hear you screamSo sing, I am my own worst enemy
That's what she said to me
And I am living out your dreamSo sing, I am my own worst enemy
So we can just breathe, a little more safelyAmbulance, I'm calling you now
Accidents bring the house down
Come on, come on, you don't know me
Come on, come on, you owe me nothingIs this in it my love? Turn it up, turn it up
I want to hear you scream
Oh, is this in it my love? Turn it up, turn it up
I want to hear you scream, singI've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plansReal big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plansI've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughtsI've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts

I've got real big plans and such bad thoughtsI've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
I've got real big plans and such bad thoughts
