

You Said the Words

Wood

You said the words
And I felt myself begin to fall
And I saw the road ahead with moonlight at all
And baby, baby, babe And I won't be home for tea
Don't suppose you wanna see You said the words
I felt the feeling in my heart
And I saw my world just fall apart
Baby, baby, babe And I won't be home for tea
Don't suppose you wanna see
