

Two Left Feet (feat. Soul Glow Activatur)

LZ7

When I was a young boy daddy said to me
These feet are gonna take you to your dreams
He brought out the boombox, pressed play on the machine
And these feet tore up the floor like I've never seen
Polaroid pick when I was six
My momma worked hard just to buy my kicks
I laced up mine in the discount thrift
My two left Jordan's looked so sick
I practiced day and night and people stared and they wondered how
The kid with the beat, no he don't look right
But look at me now, just look at me now
(Woah) I am dancing on these tables
(Woah) I am moving in these streets
Jump up and down and I'll sing and I'll shout
I got two left feet, I got two left feet
(GO)
Woahh ohhh ohhh
(Two left feet, I got two left feet)
High on the table, low on the floor
Shuffle these two left feet galore
'Cause I'm kicking up the dust storm
Make the haters say "Oh my lord!"
Thank you for blessing me cause beauty's only skin deep
And that includes my left feet so how do ya like me now?
(Woah) I am dancing on these tables
(Woah) I am moving in these streets
Jump up and down and I'll sing and I'll shout
Woahh ohhh ohhh
(Woah) I am dancing on these tables
(Woah) I am moving in these streets
Jump up and down and I'll sing and I'll shout
(GO)
Woahh uh ohhh
(Woah) I am dancing on these tables
(Woah) I am moving in these streets

Jump up and down and I'll sing and I'll shout

Woahh uh ohhh

(Woah) I am dancing on these tables

(Woah) I am moving in these streets

Jump up and down and I'll sing and I'll shout
