

Midnight and Noon

Kevin Welch

Somewhere in this old world
Girl you're gonna see
There's a place for you
Yeah, there's a place for you
Times have been hard I know
Hurtin' me too
Thought you'd come back to me
Actually thought you'd come back to me
Train's still wailing
Just a little out of tune
The bells are still ringing
You and me we used to walk down our gravel road
Used to walk hand in hand
Yeah we were hand in hand
Tryin' to forget you, babe
But I don't think I can
Now I walk that road alone
That ol' caliche road alone
Train's still wailing
Just a little out of tune
The bells are still ringing
