

The Ghost Is Gone

Anna F.

i didn't really feel it, until the feeling came back, and i don't really hate u, i just hate keeping track i know they will trouble on me, where the water still flows, thats the savage that keeps calling cause he sees what i know,suffering, me silently, cause down here, without you, my life still revolves around you, and i feel, the worlds crying,the ghost is gone, but i am coming baaaack,i have had my processes denied, i am more concrned for my head, you have put me just in the float, i let them hanging myself, i have got my back to the wall, cause its strong and its good, but i know that something has happened that i never thought wouldcrushingly, so carefully, when, down here, without you, my life still revolves around you, and i feel,
the world cried, the ghost is gone, but i am coming baaaack,don't break me down, don't take me down don't break me down, it's too late x4crushingly, so carefullywhen down here, without you, my life still revolves aorund youand i feel, the worlds crying, the ghost is gone, but i am coming,down here, without you, my life still revolves around youand i feel, the world cryied the ghost is gonebut im coming baaaaaack coming baaaackcoming backdon't break me down, don't take me down,
don't break me down,
don't take me down,
don't break me down,
don't take me down,
