Warning

Clear Convictions

why, why you ignore me I'm telling you the truth his mercy set me free he wants the same for you so listen carefully, time is running out this world is going to end someday i hope you open your eyes you want to stay blind to ignore the reality we are living but it is the truth
this maybe is the end so, raise your fist and let god take control it's not religion it's a secure option there is no other way to be saved
