

My Grave

Shame-On-U

starring into the water a fake smile I can see wondering who the person is, is really me my heart is locked in chains, making me to a slave feel like I'm buried with black roses on my grave the stain in my face is red, wake me up from this nightmare pins and needles in my head, I'm not going anywhere am I still alive or dead, wake me up from this nightmare cruel things you have said, I'm not going anywhere let me go, let me go can't you see I can't stand this pain let me go, let me go
