Forever

Rob Rock

Nownow that you have gone away
Where will you run, where will you stay?
You know you've been hiding for so long
Seesee all the love you left behind
Leaving you stranded all alone
What will you do you're lost and lonelyCaught, caught in a web of sin again
I was so blind like you I ran
Somehow I found the light to guide my wayAfter all that we've been through Love of my life, I will remember you
Forever, Forever
Forever, Love of my lifeFearfear all the things that you once knew
Trapped in a hell lying to you
Trying to keep you from the only truth
Taketake what you want it's your own choice
And after all we hear this voice
Because we've found a love that just won't go awayAfter all that we've been through
Love of my life, Lord, I long to be with you
Forever, Forever
Forever, Love of my life
Forever, Forever
Forever, Love of my lifeNow, now that you have gone away
Where will you run, where will you stay?
You know you've been hiding for so longForever, Forever
Forever, Love of my life
Forever, Forever
Forever, Love of my life
ForeverIt was your grace that fell on me
Now your love has set me freeForever
Forever, Love of my life
Forever, Forever
Forever
