If You Wanna Stay a While

Brian Dunne

If you gotta go baby
then thatâ€™s what weâ€™ll be.
But Iâ€™ll be right here when you
come back home to me.

And if you wanna stay awhile
I think I got what â€˜ya need.
And Iâ€™ll lay my love before the heavens above
in your company.

I donâ€™t know why everythingâ€™s always changing.
I donâ€™t know why everything must end.
Maybe, baby, if we try and just be patient,
maybe everything is meant to begin again.

So, if you say that when something goes, then itâ€™s gone.
Well whoâ€™s to say for sure if youâ€™re right or youâ€™re wrong.

So, if you gotta go baby
then thatâ€™s what weâ€™ll be.
But Iâ€™ll be right here when you
come back home to me.

And if you wanna stay awhile
I think I got what â€˜ya need.
And Iâ€™ll lay my love before the heavens above
in your company.

And when youâ€™re lost and youâ€™ve caused yourself a world of trouble,
when your god doesnâ€™t fix anything for you now,
and when the fresh cup of coffee that you set at the table,
it doesnâ€™t give you more answers than It gives you doubts.

And frankly I donâ€™t know what the future holds.
But only you can decide if youâ€™re going alone.

Only you know.

So, if you gotta go baby
then thatâ€™s what weâ€™ll be.

But Iâ€™ll be right here should you
come back home to me.

And if you wanna stay awhile
I think I got what â€˜ya need.
And Iâ€™ll lay my love before the heavens above
in your company.

Oh yea.

So when you ask if thereâ€™s a reason you should keep on running,
I donâ€™t know, yea, know, but I believe.

Oh.

So, if you gotta go baby
then thatâ€™s what weâ€™ll be.
But Iâ€™ll be right here when you come back home, come back home to me.

And if you wanna stay awhile
I think I got what â€˜ya need.
And I will lay my love before the heavens above
in your company.

Oh, well I said I hope, no, I donâ€™t ever want to watch you leave but if you gotta go, go now and you can take your love from me.
But you should know that, know,
nobody wants to be alone.
But Iâ€™ll be right here should you ever come back home.

Yea I said, if you gotta go baby
then thatâ€™s what weâ€™ll be.
But Iâ€™ll be right here when you
come back home to me.

Come back home to me.

And if you wanna stay awhile
I think I got what â€˜ya need.
And I will lay my love before the heavens above
in your company.

So, if you gotta go baby
then thatâ€™s what weâ€™ll be.

But Iâ€™ll be right here when you
come back home to me.

And if you wanna stay awhile
I think I got what â€˜ya need.
And I will lay my love before the heavens above
in your company.

And I will lay my love before the heavens above
in your company.
