Roosevelt

Feels like I've been left behind
Make up with the past
If I can only change your mind
Would it ever last
Cause everything I used to mean
Has fallen apart
And those dreams of you are haunting me
Following my heart Lay down
Pull me close in the morning
I know I should be out with a warning Hold me till the sunrise
Days are turning black
You'll be sorry when you realize
There's no turning back
Cause everything I used to mean
Has fallen apart
And those dreams of you are haunting me
Following my heart
Lay down
Pull me close in the morning
I know I should be out with a warning
