

The Things You Couldn't Do

A Fall To Break

It's what I'm waiting for that matters, not the things I have right now,
Some say your dreams will make you higher,
But mine they keep me on the ground
You see my fears are all I have,
They're all that's keeping me alive,
The fear of being like my dad,
And never living a full life, And let it waste away,
When there's so much left to say
If you don't like your ways,
Well then you have to make a change, And after all that I've done,
And all that I've been through,
I have change my ways
I'm done with things you could not do,
I'm done with more than my own,
And I will fight to make it through,
They said it wouldn't happen, It couldn't happen
Now I've got a lot to prove, They say a memory lasts forever,
Sometimes I wish that this weren't true,
I can't forget how much you mattered,
Or how much I've thought of you,
My love will never let you go,
But we are nothing more alike,
And I just want to let you know,
I'll make much more with my one life, And let it waste away,
If you don't like your ways,
Well then you have to make a change, And after all that I've done,
And all that I've been through,
I have change my ways
I'm done with things you could not do,
I'm done with more than my own,
And I will fight to make it through,
They said it wouldn't happen, It couldn't happen
Now I've got a lot to prove, And after all that I've done,
And all that I've been through,
I have change my ways
I'm done with things you could not do,
I'm done with more than my own,

And I will fight to make it through,
They said it wouldn't happen, It couldn't happen
Now I've got a lot to prove,
