Haha, satsang on the track yeah, Tubby love got your backs yeah,

Alright, yeaah, Ay!

Well, these days it's hard to Be,

Hard to let go, said it's hard to see

It seems there's always somethin'

Now trying, to keep us down, war of a world turned upside down

But I see love so sing it out

Well this song is timeless, transcending the world and unscared by violence.

And I won't let them harden me

Well I know, there's work to do, put my gloves on said I'll work with you, 'cause I know we can be the change, yeah,

and sometimes it's hard, now but it must be doooooone, so;

I'm gonna be love,
I'm gonna birth strength,
I'm gonna be where I'm at and give thanks,
Take my time, admit when I'm wrong
Write it all down and sing a new song

I'm gonna be free, gonna be me, 'cause I know that is all that I have to be

Ima be bold, find strength thereof, now I'm gonna be, gonna be, I'm gonna be Looove, I'm gonna be Looove, yeaah,

I'm gonna be Looove, be looove yeah,

I'm gonna be looove, yeah!

This ones for my tribe, (((one tribe)))because weâ€™re all in this together (yep), a living in crucial times (crucial)

Yeah, we can make a chaaange (((we can make the change))), we can learn to love each other, live in a sacred way

Let creator keep on growing us strooong (yeah keep on growing us strong)
