

Digital Garden

Prince

Love, like a rose in bloom
All of the rainbow children will feel it soon
To the east, word traveled about this energy
Until it reached the banished ones
Who just wanted this love to cease They now fallen into
The resistor's dream
And they built a digital garden
Or so it seemed In this brilliant darkness
So-called angels of light
Lies, lies, lies, lies, lies And all the rainbow children will stand and fight
For everlasting, everlasting life
For the one who sits on the right
For him we're willing to do the work The banished ones approaching
The palace shouted obscenities
They tried to confuse the rainbow children
And dethrone their king Using the lies promoted by the whose papers
Hella visions, and scagazines
The banished ones constructed a digital garden
Around the palace that extended throughout the world Furthermore they demanded compensation for their time
Spent in the palace before the exile, this was noise
"So be it", said the wise one
And gladly obliged with an invisible deed The banished ones accepted
And returned to their place of birth in mendacity
As for the rainbow children
They began deconstructing the digital garden
Door to door they went in search of those willing to do the work
