Something to Die For

Slut

so many years from now and far away I guess you don even know my name so many years when there was nothing to say but I get arranged somehow wee not gonna change it now as long as youe here there something to die for - my love as long as youe near there something to cry for - my love guess I can never find my destiny guess i can never be blessed with love I think you will always be a part of me think I get juiced in it but never get used to it as long as youe here there something to die for - my love as long as youe near there something to cry for - my love as long as youe here there something to die for - my love ause time after time there something to cry for - my love my love

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/