

Boy

Plankeye

There's a boy that I once knew
He lived his life in pain
Everyone thought he had it all
But no one knows the truth
Anger and hate so deep inside
Waiting for their chance...
A boy with no control looking down at a cold steel chamber
Mercy at last
Darkness comes on so strong
His world gets painted black
The frail boy collapsed
The fight is done
Just one thing left to do
One technicality
Face to face with death
There's finally someone who cares
Darkness comes on so strong
His world gets painted black
The frail boy collapsed
The fight is done
