Sunday Morning Song

Howie Day

It's not that bad
We could have died
Chalk it up to being young
Prove it was me?No morning drive, no blurred headlight
From the corner of my eye
If only you were here right now
You tell meWouldn't it be somethin' if everything changed
Wouldn't I be somethin' in your way yeah
Wouldn't it be more than livin' in your wake
If you and I would ever cease to be yeah yeahYour summer dress now a late downpour
And how they caught us on the stairs
That silent song you'd sing to me
Keeps singingWouldn't it be somethin' if everything changed
Wouldn't I be somethin' in your way yeah
Wouldn't I be more than livin' in your wake
If you and I would ever cease to be yeah yeah yeah
No, my love hold onWe bend, I break
You fall, we scrape
I blame it all on being older now
I'm still singingWouldn't it be somethin' if everything changed
Wouldn't I be somethin' in your way
Wouldn't I be more than livin' in your wake
If you and I would ever yeah
If you and I would ever cease to be
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
