

Broken Home

ForthAngel

She remembers when this life was simple
And she didn't feel so alone
Now her families heart is broken
And now she feels so alone
She feels so alone
She feels so alone
She feels so aloneShe said you broke us apart
You took our pictures off these wall
And threw our memories on the floor
I never wanted a broken home
I never wanted a broken home
I never wanted this
She said you took something beautiful
Something so wonderful
And you tore it into pieces on the floor
I'd give anything just to bring us back together
Once againWhy is everything falling apart
What you did ripped a hole in my heart
You destroyed something beautiful
Something so wonderful
Ripped it awayNow she's getting older and her eyes still full of life
She never let her sorrow change the way she felt inside
She wants to tell him for the first time I think that I'm aliveShe said you broke us apart
You took our pictures off these wall
And threw our memories on the floor
I never wanted a broken home
I never wanted a broken home
I never wanted this
She said you took something beautiful
Something so wonderful
And you tore it into pieces on the floor
I'd give anything just to bring us back together
Once againShe said you broke us apart
You took our pictures off these wall
And threw our memories on the floor
I never wanted a broken home
I never wanted this
She said you took something beautiful
Something so wonderful

And you tore it into pieces on the floor
I'd give anything just to bring us back together
Once again Why is everything falling apart
What you did ripped a hole in my heart
You destroyed something beautiful
Something so wonderful
Ripped it away
