

Tragedy (feat. Shelby Lynne)

Peter Wolf

I think I won the fools award today
The way I made my baby cry
I cant believe the stupid things I say
Without one good reason why
I know that life has got its ups and downs
I could take whatever comes around
But if you ever take your love from me
Now that would be the tragedyThe game of love it comes so easily
I thought we'd never have to hide
And all this hurtin' just ain't pleasin' me
Now its washed up in the tideNow you can hit me with the wreckin' ball
Throw me down the stairs and watch me fall
But if you ever take your love from me
Now that would be the tragedyLoves so mysterious
It always twists and it bends
Oh did I get my goodbye kiss
Are you telling me this is the end?We'll watch the candle and its burning low
And I just cant walk away
I got so much inside for you to know baby
But that's the price I gotta payI know you want to see me back again
Just to tell me this is the end
But if you never come back to me
Now that would be the tragedy
See it burned a hole in me
A living breathing tragedyMC, enjoy!
