1]

Sign me up, holding you, the future is in your room

Recite with us: "Only the future is here anew."

When the phone booth rings, it's the happening thing

You need to change your tune Sign the page, only the future is here anew

Sign with us, only the future is in review

Where the article led, the satisfied said

"The keys are in your room."

When the monitor sings and the mission bell rings

You need to change your tune

With a sideways glance, are you acting by chance?

We need you in your room
