2014

Racoon

Time flies and it seems to me
The older ones get the history
I'll Walk anywhere I like, thanks for the fight
How kind of you bye byeshe said, I know where you will be tomorrow
I said, that's quite bizar, 'cause I don't know where I'll goSo tell me where I'll be, in 2014
The fields or maybe down in the canteen living the dream, living the dreamYoung gilrs and they seem to me much older than their givin age, you see There's less than meets the eye
The spirit's gone, feel free to live, 'n bye byeShe said, I know where you will be tomorrow
I said, that's quite bizar, 'cause I don't know where I'll goSo tell me where I'll be, in 2014
The fields or maybe down in the canteen living the dream, living the dreamSo tell me where I'll be, in 2014
The fields or maybe down in the canteen
living the dream, living the dream
