Darkstorm

Aeternus

where tie is tortured where suns and moons are pitch black where demons fear the darkness where cold is death
mystic god
unholy wars
no honour in death
the black dawn is here
fight here to pledge your soul the second gate unlocked blackened might see it rise realize
deaths truth
mystic god
unholy wars
no honour in death
the black dawn is here
this land shall be scarred battle hymns we sing
call upon our storm
it is time for battle
to open the second gate to enter the eternity
honourably
to give ourselves
to this elder wind of might
to absorb and breathe
the essence of true darkness fight for glory
no mercy shall be given hammer their skulls in molest their bodies
sound the battlehorns
for this final battle
mystic god
unholy wars
no honour in death
the black dawn is here
