I've Got to Love Again

×’'×§×™ ×•×œ×§×™×™×•

I am lonely lone. Lonely without you
Tears are falling down like rain from the sky,
But my love canâ€™t fly again to you girl

Years till the day I die, something entered my life
And today I find that everything was a dream
And my love canâ€™t grow again for you girl

Iâ€™ve got to love again, Iâ€™ve got to try again
Lady or a girl
You must be good help me believe in you, so, I no more wanted you
Mmmmmm

Something in my heart told me Iâ€™m must leave you,
That something in my heart made me, like a fool
But the dark night go and climb up again
