Music

John Miles

Music was my first love and it will be my last
Music of the future and music of the past
o live without my music would be impossible do
In this world of troubles my music pulls me through.Music was my first love and it will be my last
Music of the future and music of the past
And music of the past and music of the past.Music was my first love and it will be my last
Music of the future and music of the past
To live without my r17usic would be impossible do
In this world of troubles my music pulls me through.
