

Echo's Answer

Broadcast

The wind has gone
The invisible come
Your memories are being runThe mountain scarred
By invisible bars
The stillness is on guardOh, the wind will come
Blow, answer echo's answerThe mountain mine
From invisible time
I am next in lineThe message sent
Was of discontent
From incline to inclineOh, the wind will come
Blow, answer echo's answerThe wind is near
The invisible hear
Come my thoughts away from fearOh, the wind will come
Blow, answer all these echo's
