No Evil

MAGIC!

(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)
Woke up in the morning to another perfect stranger
(Perfect stranger, perfect stranger)
Jumped into the shower to wash off the situation
(Situation, situation)
I can't tell the difference if I'm crying or it's raining
(Is it raining, crying or it's raining)
Either way I know that there is something in the changes
(In the changes, something in the changes)All I could think of is you in that sundress
And if there's a chance to be with you I promiseThat I will speak no evil
And I will see no darkness
And I will only hear your voice
'Til the demons come in to infect the love
(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)
'Til the demons come in to infect the love
(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)Can you take me somewhere where the devil cannot find us
(Cannot find us, cannot find us)
Rid me of the poison that has only paralyzed us (Paralyzed us)
I don't want to waste another moment here without love
And I hope there still is space in your heart for meAll I could think of is you in that sundress
And if there's a chance to be with you I promiseThat I will speak no evil
And I will see no darkness
And I will only hear your voice
'Til the demons come in to infect the love
(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)
'Til the demons come in to infect the love
(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)Woah, no evil
(No, no) Woah, no evilAll I could think of is you in that sundress
And if there's a chance to be with you I promiseThat I will speak no evil
And I will see no darkness
And I will only hear your voice
'Til the demons come in to infect the love
(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)
'Til the demons come in to infect the love
(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)I will put on your sundress, let me be in the sunshine
Put on that sundress and meet me in the sunlight(Speak no, see no, hear no evil) No evil, whoa
(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)
(Speak no, see no, hear no evil)
