Apparently Hover Boards Don't Work On Water

Hawthorne Heights

Focus on nothing, only your face.
Follow me closely, into the night.
Just for one last time, turn out the light.
And when you wake up turn out the lights.Oh no-not again.
My eyes are heavy again.
Oh Please not tonight.Black and blue, overtime
Lets see how far I can drift tonight.
Kissing you everyday we'll never go this way again.Just wake me when it's over
Just wake me when it's overI'm not afraid to go afar with you.
The way the lights upon my arms and face
The ways the nights are made of me and you.These nights are black and blue
These nights (THESE NIGHTS)
These nights are black and blueJust wake me when it's over
Just wake me when it's overI'm not afraid to go afar with you
The way the lights upon my arms and face
The ways the nights are made of me and you.Oh no-not again.
My eyes are heavy again.
Oh Please not tonight.
