

Freeze the Saints

Stephen Malkmus

We meet again riding our divisible bodies
Feel no shame, luck is love is on
If you need the pain
Well you are, yes, you are so much like me Seasons change, nothing lasts for long
Except the earth and the mountains
So learn to sing along and languish here
Help me languish here It was long ago
That all of your willing dimensions
Lost the flow and vanished in veneer But I'll want to know
If you are, yes, you are so much like me
Steel restraints, zodiac ballet, everybody play
There's no more counting days, you languish here
Help me languish here You said, "Done is good"
But done well is so much fucking better
Share the wealth and cauterize the tears If you want to know
Well you are, yes, you are so much like me
Freeze the saints, such a subtle read, exquisite pedigree
Just let yourself be and languish here
Help me languish here
