False Idols

Superheist

You give me reason to compare
The situation becomes clear
And now I see straight through a paranoid society
You treat me like I'm a god you point your fingers at meI'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abusedYou're trying hard to be a friend
If you would only understand
And now I see straight through a paranoid society
You treat me like I'm a god you point your fingers at meI'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abused
I'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abusedA silver lining is the shrine you're worshipping false idols
You treat me like I'm a god you point your fingers at meI'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here
I'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abused
I'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abused
