

False Idols

Superheist

You give me reason to compare

The situation becomes clear

And now I see straight through a paranoid society

You treat me like I'm a god you point your fingers at meI'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abusedYou're trying hard to be a friend

If you would only understand

And now I see straight through a paranoid society

You treat me like I'm a god you point your fingers at meI'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abused

I'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abusedA silver lining is the shrine you're worshipping false idols

You treat me like I'm a god you point your fingers at meI'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here

I'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abused

I'm not god, they faked it all, I'm only here to be abused
