Doug KazÃ©

I'm only trying to survive
I'm not a stereotype
I have a story to rewrite
It's gonna take a while

Running, hiding,
Home where are you?

I'm yearning for an open sky
The journey's just begun
I'm praying for the wings to fly
Leave the past behind

Running, hiding
Home, where are you?

Please, don't kill me,
I'm trying to get a home
Please, don't take my stuff,
I'm trying to get a life

The sky is wide enough
For every bird to fly
The sea is deep enough
For every fish to swim
