

Gracie

Ryan Adams & The Cardinals

Hello Gracie you're a good little girl it's a beautiful world nowing you're out in it Last time I saw you playing in the yard
You were running with children and the old people were smiling
Do you miss me would you know me at all?
If you walked by my house would you smile and turn the corner?
Blow your kisses oh make it feel worse you know you gotta make the best of the time God has given you
I scratch your name into a wall on the beach with my keys on the side of the pier
I used to sleep so I would dream I was lying with you mid-summer in the grass in the fields Nobody was right Nobody was wrong, but somebody had to go oh Nobody is here so nobody is gone, hello, goodbye, hello hello, hello, hello I scratch your name in my arm with my keys on the beach on the side of the pier
I keep your picture in a frame on the wall of my place down the block far enough away it's like I'm not here You're in my heart and you're in my soul, so I have to let you go You're in my heart and you're in my soul, but I gotta let you go Hello, Hello, Hello, Hello I gotta let you go Hello, Hello, Hello I gotta let you go
I gotta let you go, goodbye, goodbye
I gotta let you go, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
I gotta let you go Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>