

Deserve U More

Musiq Soulchild

Ooh, tell me, who knows you better baby, than I do?
Said it out your own mouth
I ain't even gotta say it, ooh
You aint gotta make an issue, ooh
I ain't tryna play the victim, ooh
I'm just tryna make this thing right, yeah How could you think that I could Ever be better without you? I could go a few months
But everyday girl, I'll be missin' you
Me losin' you to another dude
The thought of it is so depressin', ooh
You and I both know that we need this that's why I'm explainin' what I'm fightin' for
Girl, there's no one who deserves you more
So stop subscribin' to those crazy thoughts
'Cause there's no one who deserve you more Who gave you love? Don't change on me
I'll go half crazy if you choose to leave
That's why I'm explainin' what I'm fightin' for
Girl, there's no one who deserves you more We don't often talk about it baby, but we know
It's true, that you were insecure once
'Cause someone really did you dirty, ooh
But encouraged you to make it through
Showed you special was a part of you
And you did the same for me too So girl, I thank you and I'm so thankful
For the times when we rise and we fall
Nights when we laughed and we talked
Let's not break up, let's be grateful
That the strain of our arguments
Only brought us close in spite of it all I'm explainin' what I'm fightin' for
Girl, there's no one who deserves you more
So stop subscribin' to those crazy thoughts
'Cause there's no one who deserve you more Who gave you love? Don't change on me
I'll go half crazy if you choose to leave
That's why I'm explainin', what I'm fightin' for Girl, there's no one who deserves you more We spend more time on our problems instead of Tryna work them out to get better however
Let's turn this negative into a positive
You believe in you and I, I feel there's a need to try
If I don't fight, I'll regret it for the rest of my life I'm explainin' what I'm fightin' for
Girl, there's no one who deserves you more
So stop subscribin' to those crazy thoughts

'Cause there's no one who deserve you more
Who gave you love? Don't change, baby
I'll go half crazy if you choose to leave
So I'm explainin', what I'm fightin' for
Girl, there's no one who deserves you
Deserves you more, no
