

Anathema

Anathema

It gave us a purpose sometimes It gave us a reason and a rhyme looking for meaning in song searching and searching so long
and we tried, and we failed but i loved you...Building a foundation straining such good intention failing slowly we falter from the line slowly dissolving our time
and we tried, and we failed but i loved you...
