

Empty

Building 429

I've got peace with you again
When I'm holding out my sinful hands, oh
I'll be delivered and captured again
'Cause I was living like an empty man
Oh but You're washing me
While you're leading me home again Well, I know what lives inside
When I hide far behind
The eyes that are so bright
Wanting our worlds to coincide And I know how much it costs
To fall prey, to be one lost
But I'll give my heart wholly
Even if I fall to these lies So I've got peace with you again
When I'm holding out my sinful hands, oh
I'll be delivered and captured again
'Cause I was living like an empty man
Oh but You're washing me
While you're leading me home again I know the soul of me
And everything that tempts me
So I guard my heart closely
So I won't be falling for the lies
(For the lies, for the lies) I've got peace with you again
When I'm holding out my sinful hands, oh
I'll be delivered and captured again
'Cause I was living like an empty man
Oh but You're washing me
While you're leading me home again But the world would love me to believe
That it revolves around me
But I can finally see That the world would love to captivate
'Cause childlike heart that aches
To fill the empty space
(Space)
The space, the space, the space I've found peace with you again
Though I'm holding out my sinful hands
I'll be delivered and captured again
'Cause I was living like a sinful man Oh but You're washing me
While you're leading me home again
(Again)
Home again, home again, home again

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>