Autobiography

Ashlee Simpson

You think you know me
Word on the street is that you do
You want my history

What others tell you won't be trueI walked a thousand miles while everyone was asleep Nobody's really seen my million subtletiesGot stains on my T-shirt and I'm the biggest flirt Right now I'm solo, but that will be changing eventually, oh

Got bruises on my heart and sometimes I get dark

If you want my auto, want my autobiography

Baby, just ask meI hear you talking

Well, it's my turn now

I'm talking back

Look in my eyes

So you can see just where I'm atI walked a thousand miles to find one river of peace I walked a million more to find what this shit meansGot stains on my T-shirt and I'm the biggest flirt

Right now I'm solo, but that will be changing eventually, oh Got bruises on my heart and sometimes I get dark

If you want my auto, want my autobiography

Baby, just ask meI'm a bad ass girl in this messed up world

I'm a sexy girl in this crazy world

I'm a simple girl in a complex world

A nasty girl, you wanna get with me?

You wanna mess with me?Got stains on my T-shirt and I'm the biggest flirt

Right now I'm solo, but that will be changing eventually, oh

I laugh more than I cry you piss me off, goodbye, goodbye

Got bruises on my heart and sometimes I get dark

If you want my auto, want my autobiography

Baby, just ask me
