Right Here

HeyHiHello!

Rolled down the window, I see nothing but the sun
I know I tried to run last night
But now I'm gonna do it rightYour eyes are shinning even though we're still so young
I can tell you baby honestly
I'd rather have you be with meI know you can be my girlfriend
I can be your boyfriend
We can get through anything and everythingI know we can stay together
Get through any weather, yeah
No matter what tomorrow bringsOh, girl! You're the only one inside of my world
I love it when you wisper into my ear
'Cause baby if you need me i'll be right here, o-oh
Yeah baby if you need me I'll be right here, right here
I'll be right here, right here, o-ohBefore I met you I was just two minus one
Somehow something wasn't adding up
My world just didn't have enoughI could never leave you, cus no one can compare
I'm sorry for the stupid lies
I promise that we won't devideI know you can be my girlfriend
I can be your boyfriend
We can get through anything and everythingI know we can stay together
Get through any weather, yeah
No matter what tomorrow bringsOh, girl! You're the only one inside of my world
I love it when you wisper into my ear
'Cause baby if you need me i'll be right here, o-oh
Yeah baby if you need me I'll be right here, right here
I'll be right here, right here, o-ohIt's just too good to be kept between you and me
Let go of anything thats holing you
Holding you downIt feels like yesterday
Is gone not years away
I'm falling over and over when you're aroundI know you can be my girlfriend
I can be your boyfriendOh, girl! You're the only one inside of my world
I love it when you wisper into my ear
'Cause baby if you need me i'll be right here, o-oh
Yeah baby if you need me I'll be right here, right here
Baby if you need me
I'll be right here, right here
Baby if you need me
Baby if you need me

Baby if you need me
I'll be right here
