Meant To Fly

Eva Avila

Yeah.
Thats right
Hmmmmm
Looks like the sun wont come out today
But the weather man said theres no chance of rain,
Every once in a while, you need to get away
Feels like voodoo dolls and prank calls everyday, yeahBut I believe that were meant to fly
Come with me, baby dont hide
All your hopes and all your fears are safe out here tonight
Cuz I believe that were meant to fly
So come on lets ride.. oooo.Sounds like the birds have stop singing.. yeah
The cold winds must have come and taken them, yeah, yeah
But all you want is to sing along
And bring them back again
Its all detours red lights and dead end.And I believe that were meant to fly
Come with me, baby dont hide
All your hopes and all your fears are safe out here tonight
And I believe that were meant to fly,
Come onI'll take you to a place that no ones ever been before
Were hanging on too long and time has come to let go..
You got to let go, oh yeahh yeahh yeahhAnd I believe that were meant to fly Cause I believe come with me baby, dont cry ooooo (were meant to fly)All your hopes and all your fears are safe out here tonight
Cause I believe that we were meant to fly
Cause I believe, cause I believe, cause I believe
Were meant to fly, that were meant to fly
Oooooooo
Were meant, were meant to fly
