Say It

Evans Blue

Say it, explain yourself, go on
Just hang yourself
No one takes pride from pain
Save your game
No one believes you anyway
Save it, you know you've been shut down
Your shit's been figured out
And all your ways belong to fate
I can't believe you had me
No one around to show me
But I should have known
Now I can't go back if only
You were the animal
I held the reins and you pulled
Living on hope
Keeping your eyes closed
But I was the animal
And you held the reins while I pulled
Living on hope
You kept my eyes closed
Say it, defend yourself, go on
We're listening, what's wrong?
Did I hit the spot, piss you off
Make you a fool in front of everyone?
Take it, it's time, admit your faults
It's your turn feeling small
To aggravate, the pain awaits
And this time there is

No one around to show you
But you should have known
Now you can't go back, if only
You were the animal
I held the reins and you pulled
Living on hope
Keeping your eyes closed
But I was the animal
And you held the reins while I pulled
Living on hope

You kept my eyes closed, eyes closed
Say it, explain yourself, go on
Just hang yourself
No one takes pride from pain
Save your game
No one believes you anyway
No one around to show me
But I should have known
You were the animal
I held the reins and you pulled
Living on hope
Living on hope
You kept my eyes closed
