First you smile at Lord, I found you first
Liquefied inside you, but it hurts if I even see you
Make you smile, I look over and cry, I get byBut that's to bad you get stuck with all alone
Look at yourself you ain't no genius
You want to find, you won't find me
I'm coming home, but IFFirst you raining for, it can't be seen
Liquefied him more and more, fuck you bitch
To go and I go and I and
I don't know 'cause I'm sick and this ain't fun at allBut that's too bad, you get stuck with whores
Look at yourself, you ain't no genius
You want to fly, you won't find me
I'm coming home, IBut that's too bad, you get stuck with whores
Look at yourself, you ain't no genius
You want to find, you won't find me
