

Inside What's Within Behind

Meshuggah

I can't run away from the thing in me
I'm weakening down another now developing within
I can feel it, it's inside my head
Connected to my brain this other me is slowly taking over
Deep beneath the eye that all can see
Energetic visions of the one I know myself to be Look into my eyes Don't listen to their lies How can I stop this from being real?
No my life will be no longer what it always used to be Life neglected infected by strain
Fall into the smothering the even flow of ravaging pain
This my temple of self caged contempt
Body slowly pierced by inevitable me Do I differ from yourself am I like they say?
The truth eventually I'm the one you wanna be
Can you feel the same as I another inside?
Pushing to free itself from the chains of the soul
