Saturdays Are the Greatest

Kristina Train

Saturdays are the greatest when you wake with someone and you read the morning papers in a little patch of sun watching boats on the water maybe ice cream in the park and then on to a movie when outside it's getting dark

Saturdays are the greatest
they were made just for fun it's the fun I remember I used to have someone victim of my mascara for a table booked at eight then hanging out to a party and staying up a little late and it's not much of a party when you're a girl on your own and Saturday turns to Sunday and you wake up alone

Saturdays are the greatest
they were made just for fun
it's the fun I remember
it's the fun that's familiar and Saturdays were the greatest

I used to have someone

Lyrics submitted by Patrick Rogier.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/